1. INTRODUCTION

All members of the Management Committee must sign this Code of Conduct when they are elected, co-opted or appointed, and on an annual basis thereafter. References throughout this Code of Conduct (the Code) to 'we', 'us' and 'our' mean Castlehill Housing Association. The Code reflects our Values which are Accountability, Communication, Customer Service, Respect and Embracing Change.

We attach the greatest importance to ensuring that high standards of governance and ethical behaviour are demonstrated by all of our people and in all of our activities.

Our Code of Conduct sets out the requirements and expectations which are attached to your role as a member of our Management Committee. You have a personal responsibility to uphold the requirements of our Code. You cannot be a member of the Management Committee¹ if you do not agree to adopt our Code of Conduct. To confirm that you understand its requirements and accept its terms, you must review and sign this Code annually.

As a Registered Social Landlord (RSL), we are required to adopt and comply with an appropriate Code of Conduct². Our Code is based on the Model Code of Conduct produced by the Scottish Federation of Housing Associations, which the Scottish Housing Regulator (SHR) has confirmed fully complies with its Regulatory Standards.

Our Code of Conduct is an important part of our governance arrangements; it is supported by the Role description which describes your responsibilities as a Management Committee member. You are responsible for ensuring that you are familiar with the terms of this Code and that you always act in accordance with its requirements and expectations. Management Committee Members must always ensure their actions accord with the legal duties of the RSL and with regulatory guidance. You must also ensure you are familiar with any policies which are linked to this code.

If there is a concern that a member of the Management Committee may have breached any part of this Code, the matter will be investigated in accordance with the Protocol that we have adopted. A serious breach of our Code may result in action being taken by the Management Committee to remove the Management Committee member(s) involved.

This Code of Conduct was adopted by our Management Committee on 28 October 2024.

¹ Our Rules state that the Management Committee can remove a member who fails to sign the Code of Conduct (Rule 44.5.2); it is a regulatory requirement that our Rules enable the Management Committee to take such action (SHR Regulatory Framework (2024) Constitutional Standard 19

2. WHO THE CODE APPLIES TO AND WHEN

Our Code of Conduct applies to all elected, appointed and co-opted members of our Management Committee and its sub-committees (and to the governing bodies of all subsidiaries and members of the Castlehill Group).

The expectations of the Code apply in all settings and circumstances where our Management Committee members are representing us or acting on our behalf and where their conduct could reflect on our tenants /organisation and/or their reputation. The Code applies equally to conduct in person, virtually and on social media.

3. HOW THE CODE IS STRUCTURED

Our Code of Conduct is based on the seven principles which are recognised as providing a framework for good governance. They demonstrate honesty, integrity and probity.³

Each principle is described, as it applies to the activities of Castlehill Housing Association and its Management Committee Members, and supporting guidance is offered for each to provide more explanation of the Code's requirements. The guidance is not exhaustive and it should be remembered that Castlehill Housing Association and our Management Committee members are responsible for ensuring that their conduct at all times meets the high standards that the RSL sector is recognised for upholding.

The seven principles that you must adhere and commit to by signing this Code are:

A. Selflessness

B. Openness

C. Honesty

D. Objectivity

E. Integrity

F. Accountability

G. Leadership
